Industry Secret...

Businesses that staff between 15 - 50 full-time employees, just aren't big enough for many agencies to utilize their top advisors. We commonly spend a lot of time correcting errors and compliance issues when clients transfer to us from other agencies.

Our heart lies with helping small businesses and our advisors have the experience and expertise required. Don't settle for less. Call our office today and start on a new path to getting the time, attention, and qualified advice your small business needs!

Testimonials

American Music Theatre

We are very grateful to have The Christian W. Landis Agency manage our insurance program. A lot can be said for having a 25 year relationship! I highly recommend the years of experience combined with the truly above and beyond service they provide in all areas: ongoing service, employee's needs, or my special requests. Each year, they present new and comprehensive plan options, which offer AMT great coverage, flexible options, and cost savings. Thank you for the peace of mind in an ever changing market!

"We have had the support from Christian Landis Agency for many many years and I cannot say enough good words about them. Our agent (Jan Raush) has been my personal rock for our company. The attention to detail and timely updates on what needs done next or the many changes within the Health Insurance system. She has always looked out for our best interest in pricing and coverage for our employees. She makes my job easier by sending me updated memos for our employee handout during plan renewal time. The reminders and "how to" to do mandatory forms keeps me organized and she never makes me feel like a pest when I call and ask the same questions every year. I get many calls throughout the year to change brokers and I ALWAYS respond with "not interested" because I already have the BEST. Keep up the good work Christian Landis Agency and Jan Raush."
